INVESTMENT OVERVIEW

4501 Irving Street is a nine-condominium building constructed in 2005 and located in San Francisco's Outer Sunset District. The property consists of four 3bd/2ba condominiums, four 2bd/2ba condominiums, and a ground-floor commercial condominium occupied by Yoga Beach. The building contains approximately 12,108 square feet and includes 12 garage parking spaces.

The residential units offer spacious, functional layouts with hardwood floors, granite countertops, stainless steel appliances, in-unit laundry and excellent natural light. Select units also enjoy ocean views. The units have separately metered gas and electricity. Constructed in 2005, the property is not subject to the San Francisco Rent Control Ordinance.

Yoga Beach's lease runs through 2030 and includes one additional five-year option at fair market value. T-Mobile equipment provides an additional income stream. Each condominium has its own parcel number, giving a new owner multiple exit strategies, including continued operation as a rental investment or the potential sale of individual condominiums over time.

The combination of modern construction, large units, ocean views, abundant parking, and multiple exit strategies makes 4501 Irving Street an excellent investment opportunity.
